7.1.1. ARTICULATE A PERSONAL PHILOSOPHY OF TEACHING THAT IS LEARNER-CENTERED.

This journey began with many flaws, but along the way, I've refined my teaching style. While I still have areas to improve, I've grown and I'll keep striving to become the kind of teacher I aspire to be.

7.2.1. DEMONSTRATE BEHAVIORS THAT UPHOLD THE DIGNITY OF TEACHING AS A PROFESSION BY EXHIBITING QUALITIES SUCH AS CARING ATTITUDE, RESPECT AND INTEGRITY.

My students told me they really like me as their teacher and honestly, those words mean the world to me. But my journey doesn't stop there; I'll keep growing and striving to be the kind of teacher students can truly look up to.

7.3.1. SEEK OPPORTUNITIES TO ESTABLISH PROFESSIONAL LINKS WITH COLLEAGUES.

Without my fellow Student Teachers and everyone in the Math Department, I wouldn't have grown into the teacher I am today. I'm forever grateful for their support, guidance, and inspiration.

7.5.1. DEMONSTRATE MOTIVATION TO REALIZE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GOALS BASED ON THE PHILIPPINE STANDARDS FOR TEACHERS.

Throughout my practice teaching journey, I consistently sought feedback from my mentors, co-teachers, and fellow student teachers to refine my teaching strategies. I actively participated in trainings, discussions, and department meetings, taking each opportunity as a step toward growth. I've also reflected regularly on my strengths and areas for improvement, using the Philippine Professional Standards for Teachers (PPST) as my guide. My goal is to continuously improve—not only for myself but for the benefit of every learner I encounter.
